

1 be taken?

2 DR. MICHENER: This is contrary to your
3 earlier policy.

4 MR. MARTINEAU: That is only typical.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion
6 of Section 10. Section 11.

7 MR. SCANLAN: This, I hope, will be a
8 noncontroversial section. This section requires the 9 Convention to keep a journal of its proceedings, reports
10 to be made, publish them, purpose is to keep the public
11 and interested officials of this state aware of what
12 the Convention is doing.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions?

14 DR. MICHENER: I understood it was inherent
15 power of a Constitutional Convention to adopt its own
16 rules of procedure specified in Section 8. Section 11
17 and 12 attempt to specify certain rules of procedure.
18 If you do this, it seems to me there is a serious lack 19 in Section 11 that it should go further and state the 20 sessions shall be open to the public.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: I assume publication means
