

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Not to keep a journal of 2 its proceedings and reports, a transcription of its 3 debates. It was the purpose of the Committee here
4 to make it clear that was not to be the procedure to be 5 followed in 1967.

6 MR. BROOKS: Also the current Rhode Island
7 Convention is not keeping a journal for all intents and 8 purposes and that will be a future problem of that 9 Convention.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment or 11 question on Section 11? Section 12.

12 MR. SCANLAN: This is a section that deals
13 with the number of delegates that constitutes a quorum.
14 Majority of the whole number of delegates to the 15 convention shall constitute a quorum for transaction
16 of business but, of course, a smaller number may 17 adjourn from day to day, provided, however -- I believe 18 this section was not in our first draft, put in there 19 as a result of action taken by this Commission with 20 respect to one of our prior reports, provided, however,
21 that a final vote of the Convention approving a proposed
