

1 Constitution written on the ballot or the voting
2 machines. Hopefully the broadest possible publicity
3 would be given to the new Constitution both by those 4 in favor of it and by those who oppose either all or 5 several of its provisions.

6 DR. JENKINS: I would suggest to the Committee
7 that we are specifying so many things here we should 8 at least specify that the Convention shall give adequate,
9 the way in which it shall give publicity.

10 MR. SCANLAN: It won't be the Convention's 11 function. They will have gone home on January 12, having 12 done their work. But your point is there should be 13 some active command in here for somebody to do something
14 to publicize it.

15 DR. JENKINS: I think there must be if 16 the electorate is going to be able to cast an intelligent 17 vote. This isn't the sort of thing one can summarize or 18 learn about through editorials in the Sunpapers.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Brooks.

20 MR. BROOKS: I hope that all of you received
21 a copy of the Florida Constitution that was published
