

1 in their newspaper prior to the election and the news-
2 papers in Florida did in fact have special editions with 3 the entire Constitution in it. This is not unusual
4 practice and I would think that if the newspapers here
5 did not do that kind of thing, that the League of 6 Women Voters as well as probably the Secretary of 7 State would put out copies for general distribution
8 for anyone interested.

9 DR. JENKINS: I simply raise the question.

10 MR. GENTRY: It is said here the 11 referendum shall be conducted according to general
12 election laws of the State of Maryland which requires 13 publication.

14 MR. BROOKS: That includes three newspapers
15 in Baltimore, I believe.

16 MR. BOND: It seems Mr. Scanlan goes in 17 great detail on publication of list of delegates.
18 Why not go to the same detail on publication of the 19 Constitution?

20 MR. SCANLAN: I think Mr. Gentry just 21 answered that. It has to follow the general rules
