

1 or each ballot label such appropriate ballot title or 2 titles as the Attorney General of the State shall 3 determine. Does that carry an inference that the Attorney
4 General could decide that this Constitution is separable
5 and people could vote on Part A, Part B, Part C?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I suppose not.

7 DR. BURDETTE: But in any event, has the 8 Committee considered leaving to the Convention the 9 power to do that if it wanted to?

10 MR. SCANLAN: Do what if it wanted to?

11 DR. BURDETTE: To divide the Constitution
12 in such fashion that it could be separated into 13 parts. In some states this has been necessary in order
14 to get the Constitution adopted. This is the thing
15 that defeated the Constitution of New Jersey when it 16 was first drafted because it was submitted in blocks.
17 Various parts accumulated enough enemies to defeat it.
18 This is only a question of strategy but should it be 19 left to the Convention.

20 MR. SCANLAN: Answering your several questions
21 in a row, there is no question that the convention would
