2 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

3 Ready for the question? Question arises on the motion
4 to amend Section 13 so as to provide that a new Consti-
5 tution may be submitted in parts for the approval or 6 rejection of the electorate as determined by the 7 Convention. Ready for the question? Those in favor, 8 please signify by show of hands. Contrary. Motion is 9 lost four to fifteen. Any further discussion of 10 Section 13?

11 MR. CASE: I have a point. I am not sure
12 of my ground here so I will put it by way of question
13 to the distinguished Chairman.

14 This particular section says in substance
15 that the Convention can propose an amendment. Let's 16 assume for purposes of discussion here that the only 17 thing that the Convention feels it really wants to 18 adopt are the budget amendments talked about this 19 morning. I am using that only for purposes of illustra-
20 tion.

21 MR. SCANLAN: Obviously a very hypothetical
