

1 to say to me you didn't know what you were doing.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment?

3 MRS. BOTHE: In view of Mr. Scanlan's
4 view that it would be inimical to have a piecemeal
5 Constitution proposed to the voters, I wonder why the 6 Committee feels it necessary to refer to the possibility
7 of amending the Constitution in the Convention.
8 Certainly that's not what anybody is aiming to achieve
9 by this convention. Why not just delete the reference
10 to amendments.

11 MR. SCANLAN: I think naturally most of 12 us here hope that the Constitutional Convention, when 13 it completes its work, will have come up with a new 14 charter of government. You don't always get the best 15 of all things in this world. It is very possible that 16 even in the realm of probability that we will have four 17 months of a hard working Convention that can agree on 18 a number of fundamental changes in the government of 19 this state but cannot necessarily agree on an entirely
20 new document. I think at least we should have the bene-
21 fit of what they agreed upon. If they agreed, for
