

1 to the Constitution and we submit the entire Constitution
2 with this amendment to the people. If you vote that 3 Constitution down, we don't have a Constitution. So 4 the only way you can submit it is have an amendment if 5 you are going to have an amendment , otherwise it has 6 to be a new document.

7 MR. CASE: You have the existing Constitution.

8 MR. SAYRE: You don't have the existing
9 Constitution if you submit the existing Constitution
10 which is turned down.

11 MR. CASE: Certainly you have the existing 12 one.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Don't argue about it. Any 14 further debate?

15 MR. CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I don't see
16 that this language as written now obviates or restricts
17 the Convention from acting in any way it sees fit.
18 Either by way of amendment or by new document or new 19 document which is an amendment. Therefore, we are 20 really doing something that is unnecessary.

21 MR. HOFF: Echoing your former query, do
