

1 such schedules but by more or less American common law
2 tradition such schedules have been adopted as statutory 3 materials. The enabling legislation for the most 4 part has not provided for such schedules even where 5 these schedules have been provided for by constitutional 6 conventions. I think really this is another one of the 7 points where if this bill said nothing, the Constitutional
8 Convention can provide for the schedule arrangement.

9 On the other hand, I think it should be 10 clarified initially and in this case rather than a
11 negative suggestion as was suggested in Section 13,
12 a positive suggestion that the Convention in fact 13 utilize a schedule should be stated here. I think the 14 limitation of what the effect of the schedule is that 15 it is only worthy of law rather than of constitutional
16 standing, should be spelled out in advance.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment?

18 Mr. Hoff?

19 MR. HOFF: I think you are giving the 20 Legislature the power by deferring the effective date
21 of any provision the power of veto over a constitutional
