

1           THE CHAIRMAN: That concludes the consideration
2 of the Sixth Report of the Committee on Convention Pro-
3 cedures. We will now proceed to a consideration of the 4 Fifth Report of the Committee on Miscellaneous Provisions.

5           MR. BROOKS: Is there anyone that doesn't have 6 a copy of the Report?

7           THE CHAIRMAN: This is the Report dated October
8 14, 1966.

9           Mrs. Bothe?

10          MRS. BOTHE: Mr. Chairman, the Fifth Report
11 of the Committee on Miscellaneous Provisions deals with 12 the education provisions of the Constitution. The Fourth
13 Report of the Committee which was submitted at the July 14 meeting in Easton also gave recommendations regarding 15 education. There was some discussion at the July meeting 16 which resulted in agreement of the Commission with the 17 Committee on certain matters of principle, but no definitive 18 action was taken. Since that time, the Committee has 19 considerably reviewed the material and thinking contained
20 in the Fourth Report and has completely revised that 21 Report although there has been no substantial change in the
