

1 of literature, has had many contacts with the administra-
2 tive and teaching personnel in the State School System.
3 We know the hearing last March at which some twenty dif-
4 ferent persons appeared that representatives of the 5 educational institutions and of the general public to give 6 us suggestions as to what they felt should be and shouldn't 7 be in the education article -- and after surveying the 8 situation certain issues developed which we felt were 9 the vital ones we had to deal with. Now, starting on 10 Page 4 and going on to Page 5 of the Report are listed
11 what we found to be the basic issues as presented to us.
12 We considered these for inclusion in an education article
13 for the new Constitution.

14 The first of them dealt with Section 3 of 15 Article VIII. That is a statement -- oh, I might say 16 in addition to the provisions on Page 2, there were also 17 the very significant provisions contained in Article III,
18 Section 52, which the Commission acted on yesterday on 19 the recommendation of the Committee on Finance and Taxa-
20 tion, and the recommendation adopted by the Commission
21 was that which our Committee felt should have been continued
