

1 educational facilities in the State, particularly as 2 regards the State Board of Colleges and have come up
3 with a recommendation in this Report. On the Commission's 4 meeting in July, Dr. Jenkins and Dr. Bard both made
5 recommendations regarding recognition of the autonomy
6 for other institutions of higher learning in the State,
7 and we have also dealt with those in our Report. There
8 was a suggestion made principally by Dr. Cohen that the 9 Constitution should provide that all qualified residents
10 of the State be entitled to a higher education without 11 regard to their ability to pay, and there was a converse
12 concern expressed at the July meeting that the Committee 13 should frame its recommendations in such a way as to 14 be certain that the State was not obligated to supply 15 higher education to everyone regardless. We think we have 16 also taken care of that situation. Then, the question
17 arose of the Maryland practice of granting aid to private 18 institutions and whether that should be given constitution-
19 al sanction. Our Report deals also with that question.
20 Now, as to the resolution of these various resolutions I 21 have outlined, would it be agreeable if we go through the
