

1 educational laws of the State to comply with people.

2 MR. MILLER: You are talking about residents.

3 MRS. BOTHE: There again you get into a legalis-
4 tic idea because some people are residents because they 5 live here or work here six months and some children, of 6 course, are hither and yon with the Armed Force: and people
7 seems to us to be a much better way to express the inten-
8 tion.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard?

10 DR. BARD: I don't want to go back to Congress-
11 man Miller's point, but I think it was much more important
12 than seemed evident at the moment, and I would like to 13 move --

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Hold your motion. We have a 15 motion.

16 DR. BARD: Good. Then I would like to say that 17 the word, children, is an important term because should 18 the moment come that all of your talking about, namely 19 when all of school age is to be interpreted as moving up,
20 let us say, into the community college level for which there 21 is no provision in here other than within that frame of
