

1 MR. MILLER: I have already expressed my views
2 but I would like to say to my good friend, Mr. MacDowell,
3 I am all in favor of words of art, but to me the word, 4 child, no matter what they may consider it in some of 5 the Federal statutes, I think the average citizen child
6 is going to stop somewhere between twenty-one, and I 7 would hope that we could have public school education for 8 those older than that if there is a good reason for it.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Michener?

10 DR. MICHENER: It is pointed out in Federal 11 statutes as Congressman Miller states, child is getting 12 a broader and broader meaning. Under the Social Security
13 Act we talk about adult children, and this could be a 14 child of seventy, because they are children of some people.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Bond?

16 MR. BOND: I would like to comment that I dis-
17 agree on the basic philosophy that this be mandatory 18 to provide education for anyone other than children of 19 school age. I mean, we have the other law which does.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette?

21 DR. BURDETTE: I am not sure what Dr. Bard
