

1 other portion of this is not free. The second portion
2 is not free, and I do not object. I favor adult educa-
3 tion. I am a proponent of adult education, but I do not 4 feel adult education should necessarily be free. I think
5 some things people should pay for at least in part. I
6 think children should not pay, but others should pay.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard, may I ask you a ques-
8 tion as an educator and ask the same of Dr. Burdette?
9 Would you consider a student in one of the professional 10 schools at the University of Maryland, for instance, as 11 a person of school age, the Law School, Medical School,
12 Dental School?

13 DR. BARD: In answer to your question, I would 14 certainly consider one in our particular school as an 15 individual of school age, yes.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: So that the effect of your 17 motion in your mind, then, would be to require the State
18 by the Constitution to maintain a system of at least 19 community college?

20 DR. BARD: Might be, but not necessarily so.
21 This offers the possibility for it to be so. As a matter
