

1 you don't feel this is necessary to protect the indepen-
2 dence of the Judiciary Department. I frankly am wonder-
3 ing, I am not sure that it is necessary for the indepen-
4 dence of the Judiciary, yet I wonder why you feel it is 5 necessary for the independence of the University.

6 MR. CASE: Well, that question, Mr. Martineau,
7 goes to the whole subject of autonomy and why autonomy
8 is a desirable thing from the standpoint of the University
9 and the difference is the difference between college
10 professors and judges.

11 MR. MARTINEAU: I am not sure what you mean 12 by that.

13 MR. CASE: They are different animals,
14 and they have to be treated differently. You don't put 15 birds in one kind of cage of the zoo and put gorillas
16 in another.

17 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Which is which?

18 MR. MINDEL: Suppose the taking of an oath
19 were abolished. Could the Board of Regents on its own 20 authority require an oath of those required by it?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe?
