

1 said that we were not going to build up a Constitution.

2 We wanted it flexible, and I, for the life of 3 me, cannot see why it wouldn't be more controversial
4 to have it in the Constitution and frozen. It has pros-
5 pered since 1859 when my great-grandfather got interested,
6 but I don't see that we have a right to make it or any 7 other State institution frozen into the Constitution, and 8 I think we will be going against all of our overall con-
9 cepts if we begin putting individual institutions with 10 extra-territorial powers into a Constitution, and I would 11 therefore second entirely what has been said by the 12 author of this motion.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gentry?

14 MR. GENTRY: Speaking in favor of the continu-
15 ance of Section 3, I would like to say this: That, first 16 of all, we are not in any sense freezing College Park in 17 the Constitution. College Park and the University are 18 there and have been there many years and will continue to 19 be there, regardless of what we will do. What we are 20 doing, we are growing in three areas. We are giving 21 exclusive supervision and control of expenditures to the
