

1 or be purchased from Lucas Brothers. He is not inter-
2 fering with the judicial process when he does this. He 3 is not affecting the opinions of any judge or the means 4 by which any litigant comes to court or the essence of 5 the judicial process. But when a Budget Director decides 6 what kind of computer the University of Maryland should 7 have and how it should use it, it is going to invade the 8 very heart of the educational process in Maryland. There
9 is no other department, there is no other area of State 10 government which is entitled as the University is to the 11 exclusive management and control of its internal affairs.
12 It is a different cup of tea. It is utterly unique
13 for reasons I think we can all appreciate generally. I 14 have done some reading in particular on the subject, and 15 I have become utterly convinced of the proposition that 16 we cannot consider the University of Maryland and the 17 State universities in the same context as many of the 18 other branches of Government and inclusion of it in the 19 Constitution is not going to create a precedent for in-20 clusion of other areas of government. This is unique.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion? If not,
