

1 with law in the first phrase in light of the second two
2 phrases, and the explanations of the Committee have not
3 relieved my mind of the doubts. Also it seems to me
4 that the last two clauses in constitutional language
5 grant complete and unfettered control. Mr. Scanlan, you
6 want to close?

7 GOVERNOR LANE: May I say something?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I am sorry.

9 GOVERNOR LANE: My confusion about it is that 10 we have had numerous troubles that the University has, 11 but since 1952 from what has been said, increasingly the 12 University has been assisted, or to put it in a few words, 13 has been granted legislative autonomy. Could this be 14 accomplished by a review or presentation to the Legis-15 lature to expand the autonomy rather than to put it in 16 the Constitution which to a great extent is irrevocable?
17 I think there should be a tie between the representatives
18 of the people with respect not only to the University,
19 but with all the other branches of the Government, so 20 that we don't wind up gradually by having the head of the 21 Government or its operation out of control.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Scanlan?
