

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Can we get started, please?

2 We now go ahead with the consideration of the Fifth
3 Report of the Committee on Judiciary Department.

4 Mr. Martineau?

5 MR. MARTINEAU: As the answer to Mrs.
6 Freedlander's question, the purpose of this report is 7 primarily to tidy up the judiciary article that is 8 presented in our Fourth Report and to include the 9 changes which were directed by the Commission at our 10 last meeting. Perhaps the most noteworthy aspect of 11 the report is its brevity. We went from forty pages
12 of comment to one page. The first page of the report 13 indicates the procedure that we followed which was 14 merely to reprint the article showing the changes in 15 there in the same way as changes are shown in legisla-
16 tion, bills adopted by the Legislature, that is the new 17 material is underscored and the deleted material is 18 bracketed. I will run through the sections very quickly 19 and whatever changes there are, I will explain. If 20 there are any questions, just stop me as I go along.

21 There was no change in Section 1. Section 2 A
