

1 Mr. Case at the last meeting of whether the provisions,
2 the sections here that related to rule making would 3 permit the Legislature to pass a law which would change
4 the rule. We have attempted by the use of the word
5 exclusively here and by the use of different language 6 in the rule making section to make it clear which 7 matters covered by rule are exclusively covered by 8 rules of the Supreme Court and which can be modified
9 by the Legislature.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Martineau, before you
11 leave that, this word which is used in four or five 12 sections, I think, is a little awkward. Is there any 13 objection from the point of view of substance or any 14 other objection from your Committee if the Committee on 15 Style is able to cover this problem in the section on 16 rule and not repeat the exclusively four or five times.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: I wouldn't think there
18 would be any objection whatsoever.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: All right.

20 MR. MARTINEAU: As a matter of fact, if 21 any of you have suggestions as to rephrasing that might
