

1 express the thought here more clearly we would be happy
2 to receive them. We have done and have almost 3 consistently revised the language to make it more clear 4 and if anyone has any suggestion, we would be happy to 5 receive them. We have no objection to the Committee
6 on Style making any changes they deem appropriate.

7 Going on to Section 4 the first reference
8 to underscored there in all judicial proceedings was 9 directed at the Commission at the last meeting and the 10 deletion of the word all in the first line was also 11 directed as was the addition of the word by this 12 Constitution. The next changes are shall have, as is, 13 is also a matter of cleaning up the language. In 14 Section B, 4B, we have rephrased the language somewhat 15 to make it clear that the judges are allocated among 16 the counties by law. This was again a matter raised 17 at the last meeting. Skipping on then to --

18 THE CHAIRMAN: May I ask a question here?

19 MR. MARTINEAU: Yes.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: It is not clear to me as this 21 is rephrased what is meant by the phrase allocated among
