

1 the counties by law.

2 MR. MARTINEAU: Well, the phrase is that,
3 it is intended to mean that the Legislature will provide
4 that Baltimore County there shall be 13 Judges of the 5 Superior Court. In Baltimore City, there shall be 20,
6 and in some other county there will be 1, 2, or 3. That
7 is the purpose.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: You mean simply the number
9 allocated?

10 MR. MARTINEAU: Not the individual.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: What I was thinking was
12 whether or not this would let the Legislature provide
13 by for law, for instance, that there will be 7 Judges
14 in Prince Georges County, 2 of whom should be elected
15 from Charles County and one from St. Marys and one from 16 Calvert and the rest from Prince Georges.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: I would not think so.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: That is not intended?

19 MR. MARTINEAU: Certainly not intended. We
20 are trying to cover the residency requirements. Perhaps 21 this does not express it very well.
