

1 room now?

2 MR. CLAGETT: Maybe that is what I am thinking
3 of.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: There is one in every district.
5

6 MR. CLAGETT: Where does it say so unless 7 you do say so?

8 MR. MARTINEAU: The last sentence says there
9 shall be at least one District Court Judge resident
10 in each district.

11 MR. CLAGETT: Where is his court room?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Wherever the Legislature
13 happens to fix it.

14 MR. CLAGETT: I find if you provide a
15 District Court for each division, I have no difficulty
16 with it, but there is a question.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: It really is. The two
18 sentences to together, the second sentence merely
19 explains the first sentence as to what you are
20 establishing by the division of the court into districts.
21 It really isn't necessary perhaps as an explanatory
