

1 matter and I think if we can delete a sentence out of 2 here without interfering with the actual meaning of 3 the Constitution, I think we better do it.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: My concern goes further
5 than that. What bothers me is the notion that by 6 creating a division, you seem to be at war with the 7 idea of one statewide court.

8 MR. MARTINEAU: I see the problem and 9 agree with your concern.

10 MR. CLAGETT: That had not occurred to me.
11 When I read this, I went back and re-read the same
12 sentence and I felt my mind satisfied that there was a 13 Judge and there was a court and everything went along 14 fine, but I will not object to it.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Hargrove.

16 MR. HARGROVE: I think perhaps we could 17 combine the three sentences because the state shall 18 be divided by law into districts composed of one or 19 more entire or continuous counties. I think we have 20 three separate thoughts that can be combined. And it
21 says which shall be located at the District Court.
