

1 Section 7, that the Chief Judge of the Superior Court
2 who prepares the budget ought to be tied in.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: I think it does tie in.

4 This is in the Section 52 provision that was discussed
5 yesterday. It says the budget for the Judiciary Depart-
6 ment prepared by the Superior Court may be submitted.

7 MR. MARTINEAU: The Subsection 3 which is on 8 Page 13 of the Finance Committee's report provides 9 that the estimates of appropriation is for, and skipping
10 to the judiciary, for the judiciary as required by law
11 certified by the Chief Judge of the Superior Court 12 shall be transmitted to the Governor in such form and 13 in such manner as he shall direct and shall be included
14 in the budget without revision. So they have picked 15 up the idea as to who is preparing it. Of course, they 16 have changed the concept of whether the budget is 17 subject to revision by the executive or not. The 18 results of what has been done, our original proposal
19 was that the judiciary budget was subject to revision by 20 the Legislature, not by the executive, the result of 21 the action of the Commission in approving this report
