

1 kept busy down there in some responsibility.

2 MR. MARTINEAU: There is no reason for
3 that, Hal, because the Chief Judge of the Superior
4 Court is appointed and serves at the pleasure of the 5 Chief Justice. If you are talking about a man with 6 whom the Chief Justice doesn't get along and wants to 7 exile him, he doesn't have to exile him, he can appoint
8 somebody else Chief Judge.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question on 10 Section 7? If not, Mr. Bond, you have a question on 11 Section 8.

12 MR. BOND: Has the substance of this
13 section been approved by the Commission on prior meetings?

14 MR. MARTINEAU: Yes.

15 MR. BOND: I move its reconsideration.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

17 MR. MITCHELL: Second.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: What's the point you want
19 to reconsider, Mr. Bond?

20 MR. BOND: Only that I feel that if the 21 Legislature and the people speak in response to something that they see in the administration of the court and I
