

1 think the words governing practice and procedure is 2 pretty broad. Certainly the Legislature --

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Wait, go ahead. Don't 4 discuss it, give the point.

5 MR. BOND: The point I am making is that 6 the Legislature speaks and the court should not be able 7 to overrule the Legislature.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: The question is submitted to 9 the Commission without debate under our rule as to 10 whether or not you want to reconsider. This is a
11 question which the Commission has acted on in opposite
12 directions in two successive meetings. Are you ready 13 for the question?

14 DR. BURDETTE: I can't hear. What are we 15 reconsidering?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: The question that Mr. Bond
17 wants to reconsider is whether in the final analysis
18 the decision of the Legislature or the decision of the 19 court is to be paramount on the matters set out in 20 Section 8 covered by the rule-making power. This was 21 discussed in July. It was voted on in August. It was
