2 MR. MARTINEAU: When we say the same
3 reduction.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: He means a reduction on a
5 uniform basis.

6 MR. MARTINEAU: We mean a uniform reduction.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Can you leave that to the 8 Committee on Style?

9 MR. MILLER: Certainly. It just reads
10 awkward.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: It is awkward. Mr. Martineau,
12 I have some difficulties with several provisions.
13 No. 1, it just occurred to me, and it never hit me before,
14 but wouldn't the second sentence of this paragraph either
15 in its original form or as revised be in conflict with 16 the last sentence of Section 13? Don't we need a cross
17 reference? That is the provision that permits the 18 continuance of a pension at a reduced rate to a removed 19 Judge.

20 MR. MARTINEAU: Yes.

21 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Except as otherwise
