

1 study the question of how best to provide for the
2 protection of the existing salary and that is what Mr.
3 Martineau was about to comment on. Go ahead, Mr.
4 Martineau.

5 MR. MARTINEAU: The comment I was about to 6 make was that we are going to have to provide in the 7 schedule for the continuance of the salary of the 8 present -- first of all we are going to have to provide
9 for the continuation in office of the present Judges.
10 I don't think anybody would claim that even though
11 the Constitution may be repealed that those people
12 still have a right to continue in office based upon some
13 theory of contract. But nonetheless --

14 DR. BURDETTE: I would argue that. I
15 would make a comment that they could be discontinued
16 but would still have to be paid.

17 MR. SCANLAN: You went Webster one better.
18 (Laughter)

19 MR. MARTINEAU: Nonetheless, going one
20 better, first of all, as I say, we are going to have to 21 provide for the continuation in office of the Judges and
