2 MR. MARTINEAU: I think the Commission can
3 give its answer right now. Are you in favor of forfeited?

4 MRS. BOTHE: I had this arise with Judge
5 Adkins before. I am a little querulous about whether 6 it is so necessary to grant constitutional protection
7 to pensions. I am sure they will be perpetuated
8 statutorially and these problems of when the pension
9 can be cut off and under what circumstances the wife
10 can receive it or a Judge has been removed may have it 11 are all going to be litigation breeders in the 12 Constitution and I am wondering whether we couldn't 13 just forget all the reference to constitutional reference
14 to pensions.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Sayre.

16 MRS. BOTHE: As a member of the Committee,
17 I would not make a motion.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: May I ask the Committee this 19 and maybe it will help bring this matter to a head.
20 Is there any strong feeling that the provision in the 21 Constitution insofar as pensions is concerned should be
