

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Even more than that implicit
2 in Mr. Miller's question there is no intention that the
3 Judge, once a Judge, is thereafter forever prohibited
4 from practicing law.

5 MR. MARTINEAU: No.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette.

7 DR. BURDETTE: I want to provide a layman's
8 chuckle to a friend of mine that lawyers are not think-
9 ing that Judges on the bench are not practicing law.
10 I don't think in the private practice of law I want to 11 know what they are doing if they are not practicing.

12 MR. CLAGETT: Administering the law.

13 MRS. BOTHE: I think I am correct that the
14 present Constitution prohibits a reduction of salary
15 but makes no mention of pension and if I am correct
16 that situation has worked very well.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Does the present Constitution
18 say salary or compensation?

19 MRS. BOTHE: I was looking for the provision.

20 GOVERNOR LANE: I think --

21 DR. BARD: Mr. Martineau, could a Judge
