

1 for pensions be permissive and not mandatory be
2 approved. Mr. Della.

3 MR. DELLA: Would this take care of the 4 problem of a Judge coming of f the Bench and then going 5 into the practice of law where he wouldn't receive his 6 pension while practicing law?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

8 MR. DELLA: The way it is written now it is 9 like a contract, it would be regardless of what he 10 wanted to do, the Constitution says he is entitled to 11 a pension.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: If the motion were carried 13 out, the provisions in the pension law would have 14 affect whatever they might be. Any discussion of the 15 motion?

16 MR. BROOKS: One question, on that first 17 change, paid compensation that doesn't really make any 18 difference.

19 MR. MARTINEAU: No.

20 MR. BROOKS: It looks like that kind of 21 thing though, still be free for the Style Committee to
