

1 time when and then you have it as I understand it.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette, if you change
3 occurs to exist, do you need the phrase at the time?

4 MR. CLAGETT: Then you have yourself in a
5 box there.

6 JUDGE ADKINS: We would accept the altera-
7 tion of the word, the substitution of the word exists
8 for the word occurs.

9 DR. BURDETTE: That's better.

10 JUDGE ADKINS: We do not feel at the time
11 when is anything more than redundant.

12 DR. BURDETTE: You are probably right.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any objection to the change?
14 Mr. Miller.

15 MR. MILLER: I don't want to keep picking
16 at little points but it occurs to me that this is a
17 constitution that can't be altered if, as Judge Adkins
18 says, if all three of our top people get killed at one
19 time, it might be very cumbersome to make it a constitu-
20 tional requirement that the Senate should convene.
21 Now normally I would think the Senate would provide
