

1 I will read it.

2 The Governor shall be responsible for the
3 faithful execution of the laws.

4 MR. MARTINEAU: I have one comment.

5 JUDGE ADKINS: This is one I thought would
6 get by without comment.

7 MR. MARTINEAU: The reason I suggest that
8 is probably out of retaliation. The Commission amended
9 one section of the judiciary article where we referred
10 to laws by putting in by this Constitution or by law and
11 I wonder if it shouldn't also say here faithful
12 execution of the Constitution in the laws.

13 JUDGE ADKINS: I would say no, because it
14 seems to me the Constitution itself executes it.

15 MR. MARTINEAU: That is what you said.
16 That was exactly my point on which I lost. I am not
17 making a motion.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question or
19 comment concerning 9(a). Section (b).

20 JUDGE ADKINS: The Governor may at any time
21 require information, in writing or otherwise, from officers
