

1 of any administrative department, office, or agency
2 upon any subject relating to their respective offices.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Mr. Martineau.

4 MR. MARTINEAU: Administrative men executed?

5 JUDGE ADKINS: No. Well, Mr. Power points
6 out to me that we use the term administrative department
7 in Section 11. Perhaps the reason it is used here.
8 I have no objection if it is administrative and executive
9 department. The obvious intent are those departments
10 which carry out the policies of the state.

11 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Excuse me, you say
12 executive and administrative below.

13 JUDGE ADKINS: I would have no objection to
14 making it executive and administrative here.

15 MR. MILLER: Why don't you strike out
16 administrative.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: Just be consistent.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Since we are talking throughout
19 about executive department wouldn't it be preferable
20 to use that term.

21 JUDGE ADKINS: Striking out the word
