

1 administrative letting it read any department, office
2 or agency.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: That would embrace then
4 any judicial department, for instance, or the 5 legislative department?

6 JUDGE ADKINS: Yes.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Any objection to striking
8 the word administrative? The effect of this would be 9 to give the Governor power to require information in 10 writing or otherwise from members of the judicial 11 department, members of the legislative department and 12 members of the executive department.

13 MR. BROOKS: Those are branches, I would 14 think.

15 MR. SCANLAN: I would object to that.
16 It carries the implication that the Governor could 17 request from the Judge of this state the basis on which 18 he reached a decision in a particular case and I would 19 prefer it pertain only to the executive or administrative 20 department. What the Legislature does and what the 21 judicial does is none of the Governor's business unless
