

1 they want to tell him.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: I would assume if the
3 Governor wanted to find out the basis for a Judge's
4 decision, he would read his opinion.

5 MR. SCANLAN: Yes, but this language can
6 be interpreted that the Governor would have the power
7 to inquire further.

8 MR. MARTINEAU: Could this be cleared up 9 by having it read relating to the operation of their 10 respective offices which is what I think you probably 11 mean. I think there is a reason for requiring this 12 because the executive has the responsibility for making
13 up the budget of these departments. It seems to me
14 the Governor has every right to say you are asking
15 me for ten clerks in this office. Why do you need 16 ten clerks?

17 MR. SCANLAN: Other provisions deal with 18 how the budget and Legislature are transmitted to the 19 Governor. Doesn't the intention of the Committee as 20 it is originally drafted, leaving aside the language
21 that appears here, wasn't the intention of the Committee
