

1 administrative or.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: And, or.

3 JUDGE ADKINS: I would make it say and.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: What about the administrator
5 of the courts?

6 JUDGE ADKINS: You are asking me whether
7 that is included in here or which is to give him the 8 authority.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Both. I might say it would
10 be doubtful if it would be an administrative department.
11 I would assume there would be no reason why the 12 Governor could not ask for information from the 13 administrative office of the court but I don't know.

14 JUDGE ADKINS: I must admit I don't see the 15 distinction between the and and the or but if it is 16 acceptable to the Commission, it is to me.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: The suggestion is that
18 paragraph (b) be amended by inserting at the top of 19 Page 5 the word executive or before the word administra-
20 tive. Any objection?

21 MR. MILLER: Make the word department plural,
