

1 MR. MARTINEAU: I don't quite understand
2 why since you are permitting the Governor to, I think,
3 obtain control over all of the boards or commissions,
4 why you also have to give the Governor the power to 5 appoint a chief administrative officer operating under 6 these boards and commissions. It seems to me that 7 the control is enough and that like take, for example,
8 the executive secretary of the State Racing Commission.
9 I frankly can't understand why he should have to be 10 appointed by the Governor. He has to work directly
11 with and directly under the State Racing Commission
12 and his functions are not policy making functions.
13 They are merely administrative. I think it would be 14 much more important to have him operate closely with 15 the Commission appointed by the Governor than be somehow
16 able to get along with the Governor. I frankly don't 17 like it.

18 JUDGE ADKINS: The State Racing Commission
19 is a problem, I will concede. To begin with, I don't 20 know and I don't think we have been able to determine 21 whether it is a regulatory quasi-judicial agency or
