

1 differ in any respect from a number of other Commissions
2 or organizations. I agree with Mr. Bond that the 3 educational system might not be one to particularly 4 single out in this respect. But it seems to me that the 5 Committee has proceeded on a theory which might be a
6 tremendous mass of practice and unless there is better
7 evidence, particularly as pertains to certain agencies, 8 I am thinking of the Board of Regents of the 9 University of Maryland, which is appointed, there are 10 eleven members who receive appointments for seven years.
11 Under this proposal, the terms of those members would 12 have to be revamped so that 50 per cent of the member-
13 ship expired every four years. I am sure there are a 14 number of other examples where a well functioning system, 15 and nobody here today is questioning that the Board of 16 Regents at the University of Maryland has been 17 functioning well under its present tenure and method
18 of appointment, this would be completely out the window 19 by virtue of the new theory which the Committee on the 20 Executive Department prescribes and I am sure that there 21 are a number of other examples similarly. I think, for
