

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question? Mr.
2 Sayre.

3 MR. SAYRE: I think personally this is 4 a very hard thing to decide absolutely but if you have 5 a Board that has at least continuity provided by half of 6 it and this does not mean that the Governor could not 7 reappoint members whose term does expire and if you 8 have a, this is part of the executive department in 9 which the administration is done, it would seem to 10 me you would have more efficiency. I don't mean you 11 sacrifice anything because of this but I think the 12 efficiency is important which I question sometimes being 13 done at least under the existing system. You do have 14 the requirement that anyone appointed to any department
15 under this Constitution shall have such professional 16 qualifications as may be prescribed by law and that 17 was a very considered clause meaning therefore you are 18 going to have someone that has to have the professional 19 qualifications before the Governor could appoint him.
20 It would seem to me that this area could very well 21 have greater encouragement through an enlightened or