

1 simplification of what Mrs. Bothe and Mr. Gentry have 2 said. For the first years of my appointment to the 3 State Board of Public Welfare, the incumbent Governor 4 had little to say over the welfare policies involving 5 millions of dollars, had little to say over the 6 policies of the department during the first term of 7 his office. This is true in many other boards that are 8 brought to our attention and again you are taking away
9 the power of a strong executive. I can only say 10 we have gone into it thoroughly and we got this from many,
11 many people. The chaos we have had, instead of chaos
12 you have, I believe, and gosh, I am not one for the 13 spoils system, I believe you have a more efficient
14 system of government.

15 MR. DELIA: The reason I raised the question
16 before was because the Workmen's Compensation Commission
17 is termed as a commission under Paragraph (b). As far 18 as our judicial operation, it was put under Paragraph 19 (c). There is no conflict there, it is all right 20 because this is a twelve-year term of office and would 21 mean the Governor would not have an opportunity to make
