

1 that Committee's report is acted upon by the Legislature.

2 MRS. BOTHE: At least it wouldn't be
3 stratified and nailed into the Constitution.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think this would
5 stratify it. It is a question of principle involved
6 and your question was that you didn't have the factual
7 basis to enable you to decide the question. Mr. Bond.

8 MR. BOND: I have no question.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller.

10 MR. MILLER: It might simplify some of 11 this when you speak of the Governor's right to appoint
12 members of the Board of Washington College or 13 Westminster somewhere. That wouldn't be controlled by 14 anything you put in the Constitution one way or the 15 other, would it? These appointments are made under the 16 rules of the institution and are made in accordance with 17 their rules, not the Constitution of Maryland. The 18 Governor just has to do it.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: I would think that is 20 correct as to private institutions governed by the 21 charter or by the will creating the institution or whatever
