

1 as to which way to vote and more particularly in, if
2 the matter or any of them are reconsidered, I sincerely
3 trust that we will not have ultimate decisions by a
4 very narrow majority which will raise this question of 5 whether the overruling action is inappropriate. I 6 would further suggest regardless of which way the 7 vote goes that they give serious consideration to 8 including in extension of the report
9 the differing recommendations. If we adhere to the 10 present report, that the recommendations of the Committee 11 be included either as alternate or certainly very 12 fully spelled out in the report or if we adopt the 13 recommendations of the Committee that the other recommen-
14 dations be included in the report so that the full 15 picture will be before the Convention. Our session, 16 because of our commitments to many members must end at 17 12 o'clock. We are not going to be able to finish
18 everything I had hoped to get over but I think it is 19 imperative that we conclude the consideration of the 20 report of the Committee on the Legislative Department 21 and at least begin some further consideration of some
