

1 MR. SAYRE: I guess I had not thought this to in-
2 clude congressional redistricting and, if that is included
3 in this Section, I think we have to make separate reference 4 to that, congressional redistricting, as such.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: It certainly was intended to be 6 included. The whole discussion indicated that, I think.

7 MR. SAYRE: If that is included, I think we have 8 to make separate reference, because you could have redis-
9 tricting of a legislative district just to keep a balance
10 of the reapportionment and/or you can do the reverse.

11 MR. BROOKS: It depends on the plan the Governor
12 presents.

13 MR. SCANLAN: I understand the phrase, A plan
14 of districting and legislative apportionment, to mean plan
15 covering congressional districting and also a reapportion-
16 ment of the Legislature. The latter, of course, would 17 also involve plans in the creation of new legislative dis-
18 tricts.

19 DR. BARD: Right.

20 MR. SCANLAN: But it isn't the same type of dis-
21 tricting you are talking about when you say a plan of
