

1 Commission can now reverse itself on nine votes, when it has 2 twice rejected this by a vote of ten or better?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: This is the problem that I mentioned
4 yesterday evening and I suppose theoretically it could hap-
5 pen. I think the Commission ought to be exceedingly careful
6 about taking any such action.

7 MR. MILLER: I would like to make a suggestion,
8 and I think we've got to be fair about it. I think that 9 any action we take, if anyone of these provisions are 10 changed again, it seems to me it ought to be with the 11 proviso that every Member be given an opportunity to vote
12 by ballot or send it into the Secretary, or something, be-
13 cause I think we should have everybody have their say, 14 whether they happen to be here or not.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: That's not practical, because we 16 cannot conduct mail ballots and the Members wouldn't be 17 present here for discussion.

18 MR. DELLA: Mr. Chairman, as I understand, a con-19 tinuing session would be when they convene the session the 20 third Wednesday of January, they would stay in session until 21 their work is completed. Now, would this preclude any
