

1 operation by the Legislature itself of recessing, say after
2 a month and then coming back into session again, say 30
3 days after that?

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I would think not.

5 MR. DELLA: It would make this possible, then?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I would think so.

7 DR. BARD: If their law said so.

8 MR. SAYRE: Their own law said so.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Jenkins?

10 DR. JENKINS: With the problems of the Congress,
11 as we all know, appropriation acts may long be deferred
12 after the beginning of a particular fiscal year, do you
13 propose any protection here on the continuing session that
14 the appropriation bills must be passed at a certain time?

15 DR. BARD: We've discussed that on a number of 16 occasions. Unfortunately, I was not present, in terms of 17 that section on finance.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: On the report that the Second
19 Committee on Finance, as originally presented, this pro-
20 posal now presented before you would wreak havoc, because
21 it was geared to the end of the session. However, a change
