

1 portion of the Section exists apart from our strong feeling
2 with reference to adequate powers.

3 Each house may punish a Member for disorderly or 4 disrespectful behavior and with the consent of two-thirds
5 of its Members expel a Member.

6 JUDGE ADKINS: Mr. Chairman, my recollection of 7 the debate on this subject at the last Meeting was that the 8 Commission suggested that the protection which we afforded
9 was a protection in terms of a more than a majority vote
10 before the subpoena power could be exercised, not only by a
11 vote of the particular House exercising the subpoena power.
12 I think, as I recall it, I don't have the prior Report, this 13 language was substantial in the other Report, provided that 14 the General Assembly shall have by law protective rights
15 of witnesses and their papers. Wasn't that in the earlier

16 DR. BARD: We didn't have it in the Sixth, but 17 you are right, Judge, there was a substantial feeling
18 among Commission Members that there ought to be an extra
19 vote in this respect.

20 JUDGE ADKINS: But the Committee has not so pro-
21 vided.