

1 But I don't agree, unless it carries the connotation of the 2 force, subpoena doesn't mean much.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe?

4 MRS BOTHE: My recollection is similar to that 5 of Judge Adkins, as to the action in the September, I believe
6 Meeting, in which I distinctly recall, and perhaps incor-
7 rectly, that a vote was taken by the Commission upon a 8 motion similar to that which Judge Adkins just made and was 9 accepted by a majority of the Commission. I think this is 10 a question of reconsideration.

11 MR. ADKINS: That's my recollection.

12 MR. SAYRE: It's a matter of accepting new 13 language, as I understand it.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I have no way to establish by the 15 record, unless we read the transcript. We'll try to do
16 that. My recollection is there was no vote on this ques-
17 tion, that it was re-committed to the Committee.

18 MRS. BOTHE: I protest, Mr. Chairman, that with-19 out any record before the group, that a Committee, I believe,
20 is just running away with interpretation.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe, I can only answer
